OPTION MENU

This option menu details the variety of experiences that your chamber can offer your members. Select from our Silver, Gold, or Platinum packages or pick and choose options across packages. Remember, we can customize your TenDot Federal Fly-In Program to fit your needs. Not quite sure what you're looking for? Give us a call and we can help.

All packages include:

1. Onsite support for chamber executives and 24-hour concierge service for all delegates
2. All ground transportation needs (airport transfers, tours, etc.)
3. All meal function selection and procurement
4. Two nights in the hotel category of your selection. Room upgrades for chamber president, governor, or pre-selected VIPs
5. VIP shadowing, security arrangements, and any other arrangements as need be
6. Liaison to the hotel selected to include room block management, audio-visual needs, etc.
7. All billing review, final billing and assistance with sponsorship opportunities that you can sell to your members
8. The TenDot Federal Fly-In Proprietary Binder, which outlines timelines, processes, and step by step instructions during the pre-planning phase to maximize your chamber's time and resources
9. TenDot will assist you in your endeavors to arrange briefings on a wide variety of topics from Agricultural issues to changes in healthcare and energy policy, among innumerable others
10. TenDot will provide an online marketing campaign, with one "touch" per month, based on the chamber's desires and needs

FLIGHTS/TRAINS

TenDot Federal Fly-In suggests that you use a request for proposal process for the selection of a local travel agency to purchase your roundtrip airline/train tickets to DC. Should you wish to charter an aircraft, TenDot would be delighted to assist you in providing the correct size of plane, as well as all food and beverage requirements for the most competitive price.

Wholesale pricing for packages range from $800 - $1,500 per person exclusive of airfare. TenDot encourages your chamber to mark-up the retail price to increase your yearly non-dues revenue.

ARE WE MISSING SOMETHING?

WE CAN CUSTOMIZE THE FLY-IN EXPERIENCE TO MEET THE NEEDS OF YOUR CHAMBER.
